

Over-the-Counter Guide

Reimbursable	Reimbursable with Physician's Note*	NOT Reimbursable
Reimbursable with receipt in reasonable quantities. Receipt must state the vendor, the name of the medical item, the date of purchase and the amount of the purchase.	Reimbursable with receipt in reasonable quantities when accompanied by a physician's note. Receipt must state the vendor, the name of the medical item, the date of purchase and the amount of the purchase.	Not reimbursable because the items are considered to be cosmetics, toiletries or primarily for general health.
Acid reducers/Antacids Allergy medicine Analgesics/pain relievers Anti-diarrhea medicine Anti-gas medicine Antibiotic cream Antihistamines/Decongestants Aspirin Athlete's foot treatment Bandages Band-Aids Birth control (condoms, spermicides, etc.) Calamine lotion Carpal tunnel wrist supports Cold medicines Cold/hot packs for injuries Contact lens cleaning solution Cortisone cream Cough drops Cough syrups Diabetic supplies Diagnostic devices Diaper rash treatment Electrolyte drinks for child's dehydration Eye drops and products First aid kits and treatment Flu medicines Gauze pads Hemorrhoid treatment Hydrogen peroxide Incontinence supplies Insect bite treatment Jock itch treatment Laxatives Lice treatment Liquid adhesive for cuts Medic alert necklace or bracelet Menstrual cycle discomfort medicines Migraine medicines Motion sickness medicines Muscle or joint pain products Nasal sprays Nasal strips Ovulation monitor Pain relief medicines Pregnancy test kits Reading glasses Ringworm treatments Rubbing alcohol Screening kits (to detect cancer, HIV, etc.) Sinus medicines Smoking cessation aids Stomach and intestinal medicines Sunburn treatment Taxes on medical services and products Thermometers (ear, mouth or rectal) Throat lozenges and sprays Wart remover treatments Wound cleaning solutions	Acne treatments (non-cosmetic) Dietary supplements or herbal medicines to treat a specific medical condition Ear plugs for medical condition Feminine hygiene products in certain situations Fiber supplements if taken to treat a specific medical condition Glucosamine/chondroitin for arthritis or other medical condition Hormone treatment and therapy for menopause symptoms Lactose intolerance medication Medicated shampoo and soap Nasal sprays for snoring Orthopedic shoes and inserts Prenatal vitamins Sleeping aids St. John's Wort (for depression) Sunscreen (for diagnosed skin cancer) Vitamins to treat a specific medical condition Weight-loss drugs to treat a diagnosed disease * Physician's note must indicate the specific medical condition, the OTC medical item recommended to treat the medical condition, the expected duration of the condition and that the medical item is not used for cosmetic purposes.	Body spray Chapstick Cosmetics Dental floss Dental rinse Deodorant Diapers (baby) or diaper service Dietary supplements Eye cream Face cream Feminine hygiene products Hand lotions Herbal medicines Lip balm Lipstick Make-up Moisturizer Mouthwash Perfume Personal use items Shampoo Shaving brushes and creams Soap Sunscreen/Suntan lotion Toothbrush (including electric) Toothpaste Vitamins