

Assistive Technology Fair

Come explore assistive technology tools and software at this free event addressing the needs of students ages 14-21

March 7, 2012 6:30-8:30

Coordinated by the Howard County Office of Special Education ***

Representatives from the Office of Special Education will be available to explain the following:

- iPad Pilot
- Adapted low-tech devices such as adapted writing paper, adapted holders and positioning devices
- Software and equipment related to blindness/visual impairment

Division of Rehabilitation Services (DORS) representatives will be available to answer questions about Assistive Technology Evaluations and Types of Assistive Technology Equipment

Vendors will include:

- A.T: LAST, Inc Maryland Assistive Technology Cooperative
- Prentke Romich Company
- Maryland Department Of Disabilities (Maryland Technology Assistance Program)
- Division of Rehabilitation Services (DORS)
- Humanim (low intensity support service)
- Maryland Disability Law Center)

Event Location:

Cedar Lane School
11630 Scaggsville Road
Fulton, MD 20759

If you have any questions please contact Elizabeth Augustin at 410-313-5365

*The information presented at the Tech Fair is provided as a service to parents. The technology are neither sponsored by nor endorsed by the Howard County Public School System.