

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATIONAL TRAVEL PARTICIPANT AND PARENT AGREEMENT

Students are expected to be and remain in good standing in all academics and disciplinary areas outlined in the Student Handbook and HCPSS Policies, during planning and travel phases of HCPSS International Educational Travel. Students are expected to meet all expectations and guidelines as outlined by the Travel Leader and International Educational Travel Student Conduct Form. This includes student and parent attendance of trip planning meetings and workshops, meeting deadlines for submission of money and required paperwork.

In order to participate in educational travel, both students and parents must be aware and agree to the following:

- I/we understand the travel is optional and not a requirement
- The HCPSS reserves the right to cancel a trip at any time to ensure the safety of students and staff members. If such a cancellation occurs, the school system is not responsible for any financial loss incurred by the parent of students participating on the trip.
- I/ we understand that if the student's conduct breaches HCPSS Policy, Student Handbook or those established by the Trip Leader, it may result in loss of privilege to travel on this trip. Similarly, if the breach of conduct is related to the health, safety and welfare of the student and/or other trip participants, it is at the discretion of the Travel Leader, Principal and Administrative Director to send the student home at his/her parent's expense and/or apply other specified consequences of the violated policy/policies.
- I/we consent to emergency treatment by a physician in the event of injury or illness of my student participating on the trip, accepting full responsibility for all costs for that treatment.
- We affirm that our student is in satisfactory and appropriate health to participate in the trip identified. We have provided information of any medical information /medications related to their travel participation.
- In consideration of my student's participation and except in the case of reckless or willful misconduct, the HCPSS and Travel Leaders, employees , and agents will be held harmless for any and all claims for medical expenses, loss of services, injury to person or property, death or other claims that may occur at or traveling to or from the trip.

- I have instructed my student to act in a proper manner at all times in accordance with the directions given by those in charge.
